

Lisbon, 13th January 2023

Dear Prof. Bas Vos

Netherlands Society for SMGE

We wish you a 2023 with health, peace and happiness.

The Portuguese Geotechnical Society (SPG) would like to invite your Society to submit your contributions to ECSMGE 24. The procedure will be the following:

1. The abstracts for the XVIII European Conference on Soil Mechanics and Geotechnical Engineering (<https://www.ecsmge-2024.com>), that will take place in Lisbon, from 26th - 30th August 2024, should integrate:
 - Title.
 - Authors, affiliation, and e-mails.
 - Conference Main Topics.
 - A summary of the paper 150-250 words (Times New Roman 10 pt).A template for the abstracts is attached with this letter.
2. The abstracts and the papers shall be reviewed by your Society, in order to assess their quality. The list of the accepted abstracts shall be sent by your Society to the Organizing Committee using the attached Excel file.
3. In addition, the papers will be reviewed by an International Committee integrating members of the Scientific Committee, TCs members and Corporate members. The Organizing Committee aims to index all accepted papers in recognized databases of scientific literature.
We strongly believe that the good quality of the papers will contribute for the success of the Conference.
4. The abstracts accepted by your Society and the respective papers should be submitted by the Authors at <https://www.issmge.org/publications/review-platform/ongoing-conferences>
5. Please notice that the deadline to accept (or reject) the abstracts is 30th April 2023.

We thank in advance your valuable support.

With our best regards,

Alexandre Pinto
Chairman of the Organizing Committee
